

Metro Lines

- Served by local trains only
- Served by local and some express trains
- Served by local and all express trains
- Served by express trains only
- Peak hours only
- Weekdays only
- Weekday daytime only
- Weekday evening and weekends only
- Special event service
- Interchange
- Transition station
Metro services change line designation here
- Terminal Station
- Terminus

Station Information

- Customer service hub
- Tram connection
- Major bus interchange
- V-Line connection
- Turn-up-and-go
These Stations have daytime frequencies of 15 minutes or better
- All week
- Weekdays
Frequencies will be higher during weekday peak hour, and may be less during early morning and late night
- Airport station
access fee applies
- Fare Zones
Melbourne's public transport fares operate based on a zone-based system. Fares vary depending on the number of zones crossed.

Accessibility

- The Metro network is accessible.
(except Heyington station)
Some parts of the network may require assisted access. Call PTV on 1800 800 007 before travel if unsure.
- V-Line Services
Metro line terminus
V-Line Station
V-Line services continue beyond this point
- Smart Ticketing
myki - a reusable smart card - is your ticket to travel on Melbourne's public transport network.
Available for purchase at all Metro stations, online at ptv.vic.gov.au/tickets/myki or by calling PTV at 1800 800 007.